Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MedPro's Non-Acute Team Joins Blickman Industries' Sales Force

Blickman Industries Partners with MedPro

CLIFTON, NJ, (January 5th, 2021) --

Blickman Industries has partnered with MedPro's Acute Care Team over the past two years to successfully bring Blickman products to the acute care market. Blickman is proud to now partner with MedPro's Non-Acute Care Team to further expand its coverage outside the hospital market.

Blickman's mission is to offer the non-acute market a broad range of high-quality, cost-effective and durable products of superior craftsmanship, and exceed customers' expectations through a commitment to continually improve its products and services.

The MedPro sales team understands the non-acute market and has years of experience working with manufacturers servicing these customers and medical facilities. MedPro's field reps highly value the importance of the customer relationship and dedicate their efforts to providing dependable and consistent customer support.

About Blickman Industries:

Blickman has offered the highest quality of products and services to acute care hospitals, primary care offices, and surgery centers across the nation for over 130 years. Blickman strives for excellence and superior customer satisfaction at reasonable and competitive rates. Forged from over 100 years of experience in mastering stainless steel, Blickman's innovative products are renowned for their durability and optimal performance.
